Program Outcome:

The workshop "Role Of IPR In Global Economy" aims about Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) play a pivotal role in shaping the global economy by fostering innovation, incentivizing creativity, and facilitating trade. Strong IPR frameworks provide the necessary protection for inventors, creators, and businesses to invest in research and development, knowing that their ideas will be safeguarded from unauthorized use or reproduction. This protection encourages the dissemination of knowledge and the commercialization of inventions and creative works, ultimately driving economic growth and competitiveness on a global scale. Additionally, IPR frameworks promote the transfer of technology and knowledge across borders, facilitating international collaboration and investment. By ensuring that innovators are rewarded for their contributions, IPR fosters a dynamic environment conducive to entrepreneurship and innovation, thereby fueling economic progress and sustainable development worldwide.

Attention of the students towards the lecture delivered by Ms G.Mounika on "Intellectual Property Rights For Academic Excellence"

Program Outcome:

The workshop "Intellectual Property Rights For Academic Excellence" aims to educate academics and researchers about the importance of intellectual property (IP) rights in the academic environment. It likely covers topics such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade secrets, focusing on how these rights can protect their innovative work and research findings. Additionally, the workshop may provide guidance on how to navigate the process of securing and managing IP rights, fostering a culture of innovation and excellence within academic institutions. Overall, the goal is to empower participants to effectively protect and leverage their intellectual assets for academic and societal benefit.

Feedback:

All the Participants expressed their gratitude to the Resource Person Ms G.Mounika and Sri M.V.V.Prasad, Head of MBA VITS & Coordinator of IQAC for creating awareness on basic fundamentals of IPR.
